Dear Sir/Madam

I am driven to understand and learn how things work, learn new things and adapt quickly. I've gained confidence, able to talk and communicate with people in a large group. I have good writing, reading and communication skills that can be great assets. Working in a team and willing to learn from others, gain some knowledge and learn from me as well, and to respect others. I am a hard working person, energetic and flexible as well willing to try out new things, engage and learn new things. Good communication and respect is one of the things that I am good at.

Yours sincerely

Miliswa Marantsela
